

TUSKEGEE

VERSITY

2020 BLACK HISTORY MONTH LECTURE SERIES

honoring Professor Emeritus of History Frank L. Toland

“Embracing Our Heritage and Continuing the

MONDAY, FEB. 3 ALL DAY

Voter Registration Drive

Sponsored by Pi Sigma Alpha and Phi Alpha Theta

Location: Tompkins Hall ballroom

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19 4:30 P.M.

From Slave Ship to Spaceship: African-American Pioneers in Space

Carl McNair, author, CEO of McNair Achievement Programs LLC

and brother of astronaut Dr. Ronald E. McNair

FRIDAY, FEB. 7 10 A.M.

The Black Vote: Then and Now

Fred McBride, Interim Director of Public Policy,
Lawyers Committee on Civil Rights, President,
National Conference of Black Political Scientists (NCOBPS)

THURSDAY, FEB. 20 11 A.M.

Movie Screening: Harriet

FRIDAY, FEB. 21 11 A.M.

A Conversation with Gregory Allen Howard, writer and producer of “Harriet”

FRIDAY, FEB. 7 11 A.M.

George Washington Carver Convocation

Location: University Chapel

TUESDAY, FEB. 25 1 P.M.

Building a Legacy of Impact Through Invention

Jim West, National Hall of Fame Inductee and inventor of the Electret Microphone

MONDAY, FEB. 10 3 P.M.

Up From Slavery: A Town-and-Gown Conversation with Marshall Jones, National Hall of Fame Inductee and inventor of the Industrial Revolution

Dr. Jaqueline Brooks, Madison County Schools Superintendent

Lenora Piers, Tuskegee Libraries' Special Collections Manager

TUESDAY, FEB. 25 4:30 P.M.

When They Call You a Terrorist

Patrisse Cullors, author, activist and co-founder of the Black Lives Matter

Location: Logan Hall

THURSDAY, FEB. 13 & FRIDAY, FEB. 14

Fourth Annual History Research Symposium

Theme: Remembrance, Renaissance, and Revolution:

The Continued Struggle for Freedom

Location: The Carver Museum

THURSDAY, FEB. 27 11 A.M.

Political Science Symposium

Theme: Enduring Connections: Democracy and Participation in Africa and the Diaspora

Joint event between Tuskegee University and the University of

Location: Kenney Hall 44-102 (Bioethics Conference Room)

TUESDAY, FEB. 18 1 P.M.

Topic: Retracing the Footsteps of History

Deborah Gray, Tuskegee History Center

TUESDAY, FEB. 18 6 P.M.

The Civil Rights Movement and the Making of Roots

Ben Vereen, actor, director, dancer, singer and Tony Award winner

Location: University Chapel

FRIDAY, FEB. 28 10 A.M.

A Strategic Vision for Tuskegee University

Acting President Dr. Ruby L. Perry

Moderated by Dr. Carla J. Bell, Provost and VP for Academic Affairs